Art As a Vehicle to Connect Communities

How art can enrich
our lives and promote positive social change
within communities

Mark Vazquez-Mackay (CALGARY ARTIST, EDUCATOR AND ARTS ADVOCATE) Mark Vazquez-Mackay will discuss how his role as mural-ist, mentor and volunteer impacts local communities. Vazquez-Mackay's practice creates and nourishes artistic communities creating links between these communities and the citizens of Calgary.

Risa Payant (EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, COMMON WEAL COMMUNITY ARTS) is the Executive Director of a Saskatchewan provincial arts organization that collaboratively engages professional artists with communities to promote social change and cultural identity through creative expression.
She will discuss the importance of using the arts to create a legacy of social change within communities.

How To Fund That Project

Find out how project grants work and how to begin writing a grant that juries want to read

Kari McQueen (ARTS DEVELOPMENT CONSULTANT – VISUAL ARTS AND NEW MEDIA, ALBERTA FOUNDATION FOR THE ARTS) will speak about what grants can do for your career and how to go about getting them.

Noreen Neu (POLICY AND PLANNING ADVISOR, SASKATCHEWAN ARTS BOARD) will add to the conversation by discussing what makes a good grant proposal. If you want to know more about how grants work, this is your chance.
