Artmaking in a Time of Societal and Economic Disruption

With COVID-19 and some necessary long overdue societal changes happening in 2020, we are definitely living in a time of disruption and change. Join us for this webinar that explores artmaking NOW!

WITH:

AJA Loudon (EDMONTON ARTIST AND EDUCATOR) With ancestral roots split between Jamaica and Canada, Loudon uses a background in graffiti to create multi-faceted, collaborative, multi-narrative urban murals. As an educator, Loudon teaches about the history and culture of unsanctioned public art.

Michel Boutin (PRINCE ALBERT INTERDISCIPLINARY ARTIST, EDUCATOR AND CULTURAL ANIMATEUR) is the Artistic Director of IPAC (Indigenous Peoples Art Collective) in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan which he co-founded in 2005. As a cultural animateur, Boutin recruits artists to connect with topics that are relevant to the local social and cultural milieu, such as race, gender and LGBTQ advocacy.

Productivity, Efficiency and Organization as an Artist

This webinar will explore how to build effective art-based business structures, while carving out the time to do what you love, being creative. Join us for this webinar as Chute shares tips and tricks for scheduling your time, organizing submissions, social media posting, and even organizing your business finances—which all comes together to give you a rich and joyful art practice.

WITH:

Alexis Marie Chute (EDMONTON WRITER, ARTIST AND CURATOR) is a free-spirited and award winning artist, author, photographer, filmmaker, curator and public speaker. As an outside-the-box innovator and storyteller, Chute will share how to push the boundaries of your art practice.
